

Micah David Kealaka‘i Glasgow

Ph.D. in Pharmaceutical Sciences Candidate
University of Hawai‘i at Hilo

What are you studying here at UHH?

Aloha! I am currently a 4th year Ph.D. in Pharmaceutical Sciences Candidate here at the Daniel K. Inouye College of Pharmacy (DKICP) at UHH.

Why did you choose to study here at UHH?

Born and raised on the Big Island of Hawai‘i, I wanted to receive my education close to home. I was fortunate enough to be accepted into the newly developed Doctorate of Pharmaceutical Sciences degree program here at UHH, allowing me to receive higher education while still being close to family and friends.

How did you hear about the Ph.D. program?

I was introduced to the program by a current faculty member of DKICP. He seen my passion for science and math related topics and wanted to me to develop... finish

You mentioned “passion,” how would you describe passion?

Insert answer

What is Hawaiian about Pharmaceutical Sciences?

Insert answer